Central Drops 2-1 Decision at Humboldt State

Wildcats Credited with Just Two Shot Attempts in Loss

ARCATA, Calif. - Central Washington freshman Katie Drollinger (Naches, Wash.) scored her second goal of the season in the first half, and newcomer Kelly Quinn (Wasilla, Alaska/Colony HS) made three saves in her collegiate soccer debut for the Wildcats in Central's 2-1 loss at Humboldt State on Sunday.

Drollinger scored at the 35th minute for the Wildcats (5-7-0, 2-2-0 Great Northwest Athletic Conference) after taking a cross from fellow freshman Lynde Clarke (Albuquerque, N.M./Sandia HS) in front of the goal. Sophomore Lindsay Mitchell (Federal Way, Wash.) was also credited with an assist on the goal that cut Central's deficit to 2-1.

Neither team would score in the second half, however. In fact, the visiting Wildcats were credited with just one shot after the intermission - an attempt by defender Ashley Nelson (Snohomish, Wash./Monroe HS) - and were listed with just two tries for the entire contest.

Humboldt State (5-7-0, 1-3-0 GNAC) scored its two goals in a 97-second span midway through the first half. Alissa McChesney picked up her fifth goal of the year on an assist from Katie Coppoletta at the 23rd minute, and the duo traded roles at the 24th minute to give the Lumberjacks a 2-0 lead.

Quinn, meanwhile, made her collegiate soccer debut for Central Washington. She faced a total of nine Humboldt State shots, and had two of her three saves in the second half.

Central Washington returns home for five consecutive games over the next three weeks. The Wildcats will host second-ranked Seattle Pacific on Wednesday at 3 p.m. before hosting rival Western Washington next Monday (Oct. 10), also at 3 p.m., at the CWU Soccer Field.
